

GOLDRING INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

TULANE GLOBAL MBA OPTION

The Tulane Global MBA option is a special graduate program focused on global business. It offers current students and recent graduates of MBA and EMBA programs access to a unique global strategy curriculum and the option to receive a second degree, the Tulane Master of Global Management degree, or a concentration in International Management.

The curriculum consists of six courses and a team project taught by Tulane faculty (in affiliation with the Tulane international alliance business schools) at locations around the world:

1. Int'l Leadership, Ethics & Teambuilding	New Delhi, India	August 3-8, 2015
2. Strategy for Emerging Markets	Mexico City, MX	December 14-18, 2015
3. Global Strategy & Competition	Paris, France	May 16-20, 2016
4. Global Negotiation	Shanghai, China	May 23-27, 2016
5. International Finance	Bogota, Colombia	August 8-12, 2016
6. Global Supply Chains	New Orleans, LA	January 3-7, 2017
Global Team Project	All Sites

The courses are offered in one-week intensive periods in an executive format, making it accessible to full-time students as well as working professionals.

The value of the Tulane Global MBA option to the participants:

- The global strategy curriculum (Tulane is ranked # 5 worldwide in international business FT);
- International team-building and leadership experience;
- Professional experience associated with the travel to important business centers;
- Connect with cohort of experienced students from US, Latin America, Middle East, and Asia;
- The Tulane University Master of Global Management degree.

The fee is $4,800 for each course taken or $28,800 for the entire program. This fee includes tuition, books, and hotel plus two meals per day while traveling.